ERRATA TO WRITTEN REBUTTAL STATEMENT OF THE SETTLING DEVOTIONAL CLAIMANTS

On January 8, 2018, the Settling Devotional Claimants (“SDC”) submitted their Written Rebuttal Statement in the above captioned proceedings to determine the Phase II Distribution of the 2000 through 2003 cable royalty funds attributable to syndicated Devotional programming.

The SDC’s Written Rebuttal Statement included the written rebuttal testimony of Mr. John Sanders of Bond & Pecaro, Inc., in which Mr. Sanders testified that IPG’s results in 2001 “improperly include the disqualified programs claimed by IPG claimants Salem Baptist Church and Jack Van Impe.” Testimony of John S. Sanders at ¶ 9. After reviewing the testimony of IPG’s witness Raul Galaz, counsel for the SDC realized that IPG had submitted a Notice of Revised Claim to 2001 Cable Royalties (Devotional) on May 10, 2017, and that counsel had inadvertently overlooked the submission of that revision, which did not appear on the electronic CRB filing docket at the time that counsel was reviewing the draft Written Rebuttal Statement. Counsel for the SDC have notified Mr. Sanders of their error.

Accordingly, the SDC hereby withdraw paragraph 9 of the Testimony of John S. Sanders submitted with the SDC’s Written Rebuttal Statement.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Michael A. Warley
